INCORRIGIBLE GIRLS TRY TO LEAVE REFORM SCHOOL

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, July 3.—While sitting in a swing at the State Industrial school, shortly after 8 o'clock tonight Grace Nelson and Maud Jones, two immates of the institution, planned to escape. No sooner had they decided on leaving the Institution than they climbed the high surrounding wall, and found themselves on the outside. Their absence was soon detected by the officials, and the police department notified. Detective John Hutchens was hurried to the locality and came upon the girls walking rapidly on Washington avenue toward the city. He coaxed them into Ziegenhart's grocery store, on North Washington avenue, and telephoned for the patrol wagon, as the girls refused to accompany him back to the school. They were soon returned, after tess than an hour's freedom.

Frank Hicks answered for contempt for not having obeyed the order of the court that he should pay his divorced wife the sum of $25 the month allmony, together with $50 attorney's fees and costs of court. Hicks appeared as his own attorney. He went on the stand and testified that he had earned $250 since last February, and of this amount he had paid Mrs. Hicks $64. As she (Mrs. Hicks) had several children to support, Mr. Jorgensen, her attorney, put Hicks through a severe cross-examination, in which there was the suggestion that Mr. Hicks was paying court to another woman and spending most of his substance entertaining her, and neglecting his own children. Hicks was found guilty of contempt and sentenced to fifteen days in the county jall.

TWO VICTIMS OF PREMATURE CELEBRATION

MISSOULA, Mont., July 3.—Premature celebrations of the Fourth claimed two victims in this city today, both children. Edgar La Chambre, son of a prominent business man, was accidentally shot and instantly killed while handling a rifle. Fernando Phelps, a two-year-old boy, died at 4 o'clock this afternoon of burns received while trying to imitate his older brothers and sisters. The child was attempting to light firecrackers when his clothes caught fire. A sister was seriously burned while trying to save the child.

King of Flaked Foods

There are flaked foods and flaked foods-but the original flaked wheat food was

It is still the leader that all others follow—It is made best, tastes best and is best—The food that puts life into tired nerves and worn-out muscles. Crisp, delicious flakes of wheat combined with the purest barley-malt.

Your Grocer sells it. No other Flaked Food is "Just as Good."

"FORCE" is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, ing into a pan and warming it in oven. Then serve in large dish with cream, piling the flakes in one side of the dish and rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barleymalt and baked. Always "crisp" it before serving it by pourpouring the cream in the other side, dipping the flakes as eaten.
